

Amendment to:

Standard Sailing Instructions IM-XVIYRA February 2023

Number of Races:

Standard is 4 races per day.

- Any participant can suggest to sail more than four races in a day.
- 2/3 of the participants can vote for a 5th race, that must be organized.
- 100% of the participants can vote for a 6th race in one day.

For European Championship no more than 9 races.

For European Cup no more than 4 races.

For Code-Zero Cup no more than 12 races.

When there are more than 3 races, the worst race will be erased, and when more than 7 races the two worst will be erased. Minimum 3 races is needed for a complete regatta.

Schedule:

The order of importance in the monotype-XV is:

European Championship first,
then Code-Zero Cup or European cup.

The order in which Code-Zero Cup and European Cup are to be sailed, will be decided by the Race Committee, and will be informed in a preliminary skippers Meeting.

The organizers shall try to organize practice races on the Sunday, the arrival day. Starting Monday, The European championship shall be sailed in 9 races. If a minimum of 7 races have been sailed on Thursday night, the European championship is finished, So the Friday can be used for the Code-Zero or European cup. The numbers in this paragraph are all for A fleet and excluding qualifier races.